STUDENT ASSOCIATION MINUTES

On January 25, 1966, during semester break the Executive Council met for its regular meeting. Linda Byrd, Linda Spears and Connie Taylor were absent. After the devotional Dwayne prefaced the old and new business with remarks concerning the second semester.

Dwayne: Some have been asking, "What will we do this semester? most of our activities are over." We have a lot in store. Most of the things won't be "hits" as they were first semester. However, the tasks will be more in number. This is the most important extra-curricular activity you have. You are being of service to 1,500 other students.

2. The New Movie Program:

Suggestions for improvement included a correction of the sound system. Kyle suggested to Dwayne that we pay the "Volunteer" help. This would make them feel more responsible and also give the program more of a professional touch. The Council voted 6 - 1 to look into the possibility of paying them through the work-study program. If this can't be done, the possibility of paying them from the movie fund seemed favorable.

New Business

1. The New Student Mixer:

Dwayne: This will be held tomorrow night at 6:00. Come 15 minutes early and wear your name tags. There will be an announcement made in chapel and a few posters.

2. Dwayne asked David Smith to take charge of the devotionals for this semester.
3. Bob and Dwayne will clean out the store room.
4. Dwayne and Jim were to take care of "The S.A. Speaks" for this Thursday night.

It was moved we adjourn, and all were in favor.

Respectfully submitted,
